1. Preamble

The Securities and Exchange Board of India (“SEBI”) vide its Notification dated January 15, 2015, had issued the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 and further, SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) (Amendment) Regulations, 2018 notified on December 31, 2018 and subsequent amendment to PIT Regulations notified on January 21, 2019 (collectively hereinafter referred to as the (“PIT Regulations”)) requires every listed Company, inter alia, to formulate a policy for determination of ‘Legitimate purpose’ as a part of this code, to put in place a framework for prohibition of insider trading in securities and to strengthen the legal framework thereof.

Regulation 8 of the PIT Regulations requires that Board of Directors of every Listed Company shall ensure that they formulate a code of code of practices and procedures for fair disclosure of unpublished price sensitive information they would follow in order to adhere to each of the principles set out in Schedule A of the PIT Regulations, without diluting the provisions of the PIT Regulations in any manner.

In the above context, Saraswati Commercial (India) Limited (the “Company”) has formulated this code as a part of Code of Conduct for prevention of insider trading for regulating, monitoring and reporting by insider of the Company and fair disclosure of unpublished price sensitive information (the “Code of Conduct” / “Code”).

Accordingly, the Board of Directors through circulation resolution dated March 29, 2019 has adopted the revised Code of Conduct in supersession of the previous Code of Conduct. This revised Code will be applicable from April 1, 2019.

2. Objective and Applicability

The Company endeavors to preserve the confidentiality and prevent the misuse of un-published price sensitive information (“UPSI”). The Company is committed to transparency and fairness in dealing with all stakeholders and in ensuring adherence to all the applicable laws and regulations. This Code of Conduct has been prepared by adopting the standards as set out in Schedule B of the PIT Regulations, applicable to the Company, in order to regulate, monitor and report trading by its designated persons and immediate relatives of designated persons towards achieving compliance with the PIT Regulations.

The objective of this Code is to provide a basic understanding of the legal provisions relating to Trading by the Directors, Promoters, Designated Persons and Connected Persons of the Company and Material Subsidiaries for the benefit of and compliance by all concerned.

This Code is intended to provide guidance to the Directors, Promoters, Designated Persons and specified Connected Persons of the Company and Material Subsidiaries on the policy, pre-clearance and reporting procedures to be followed at the time of dealing in the securities of the Company.

5. Communication or Procurement of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information

- a. All information shall be handled within the Company on a need-to-know basis and no unpublished price sensitive information shall be communicated to any person except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.
- b. Notwithstanding what is stated above, unpublished price sensitive information may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction which:
 - i. entails an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that the sharing of such information is in the best interests of the Company;
 - ii. not attract the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that sharing of such information is in the best interests of the Company and the information that constitute unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the Board of Directors may determine to be adequate and fair to cover all relevant and material facts.

However, the Board of Directors shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the limited purpose for which the information was shared and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the Company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

6. Dissemination of “Unpublished Price Sensitive Information”

Dissemination of information and disclosure of unpublished price sensitive information shall be in compliance with Principles of Fair Disclosure with respect to Unpublished Price Sensitive Information as cited in the code.

7. Trading Plan

- a. An insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan for dealing in securities of the Company and present it to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his/her behalf in accordance with such plan (Annexure - I).
- b. Trading Plan shall:
 - i. not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insider earlier than 120 calendar days from the public disclosure of the plan;
 - ii. not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;

- iii. set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at, or dates on which such trades shall be effected; and
 - iv. Inclusion of Price Limits:- To protect the insider from adverse price fluctuation, insider can opt for an upper price limit for a buy trade and a lower price limit for a sell trade, within the price range +/- 20% of the closing price of the immediately preceding the day when Trading Plan is submitted (Optional).
- c. The Compliance Officer shall review the Trading Plan, made as above to assess whether the plan would have any potential for violation of the PIT Regulations and shall be entitled to seek such express undertaking as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan. After assessing, the Compliance Officer may approve the plan.

It is clarified that the pre-clearance of trades shall not be required for a trade executed as per an approved trading plan. Further, the trading window norms and restrictions shall not be applicable for trades carried out in accordance with an approved trading plan.

- d. The Trading Plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan or to deviate from it except due to permanent incapacity or bankruptcy or operation of law. In case of non-implementation (full/partial) of trading plan due to either reasons enumerated in regulation 7(d) or failure of execution of trade due to inadequate liquidity in the scrip, the following procedure shall be adopted:
- i. The insider shall intimate non-implementation (full/partial) of trading plan to the compliance officer within two trading days of end of tenure of the trading plan with reasons thereof and supporting documents, if any.
 - ii. Upon receipt of information from the insider, the compliance officer, shall place such information along with his recommendation to accept or reject the submissions of the insider, before the Audit Committee in the immediate next meeting. The Audit Committee shall decide whether such non-implementation (full/partial) was bona fide or not.
 - iii. The decision of the Audit Committee shall be notified by the compliance officer on the same day to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed.
 - iv. In case the Audit Committee does not accept the submissions made by the insider, then the compliance officer shall take action as per the Code of Conduct.

However, the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced, if at the time of formulation of the plan, the insider is in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information and the said information has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation. The commencement of the Trading Plan shall be deferred until such unpublished price sensitive information becomes generally available information.

- e. Upon approval of the Trading Plan, the Compliance Officer shall notify the plan to the Stock Exchanges on which the securities of the Company are listed.

Additional Trading restrictions on Designated Persons

- No Designated Person shall enter into derivative transactions in respect of Securities of the Company.
- All Designated Persons who trade in Securities of the Company shall not enter into a Contra Trade during the next six months following the prior transaction. In case of any Contra Trade is executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to SEBI for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by SEBI.

- The above restriction on Contra Trade shall not apply in case of exercise / sale of employee stock option plan (“ESOP”) securities provided the Designated Persons do not possess UPSI and the sale is executed when the trading window is open and after obtaining pre-clearance.
- The above restriction on Contra Trade shall also not apply in case of transmission of securities.

8. Trading Window

1. The Compliance Officer shall notify a ‘trading window’ during which the Designated Persons may Trade in the Company’s Securities after securing pre-clearance from the Compliance Officer in accordance with this Code.
2. Designated Persons and their Immediate Relatives shall not Trade in the Company’s Securities when the trading window is closed.
3. The trading window shall be closed for all Designated Persons from the end of every quarter till 48 hours after the declaration of financial results.
4. Additionally, the trading window shall be closed in particular for a Designated Person or class of Designated Persons when the Compliance Officer determines that a Designated Person or class of Designated Persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of UPSI, for such periods as determined by the Compliance Officer. Designated Person or class of Designated Persons will receive a notification on such special blackout periods.
5. The trading window may be re-opened after closure, not earlier than 48 hours after the UPSI in question becomes generally available information or is no longer classified as UPSI.
6. The trading window restriction shall not apply for below cases;
 - i. Off-market inter-se transfer between insiders who were in possession of the same UPSI without violating the Code and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision.
 - ii. Transaction carried out through the block deal window mechanism between persons who were in possession of the UPSI without violating the Code and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision.
 - iii. Transaction carried out pursuant to a statutory or regulatory obligation to carry out a bona fide transaction.
 - iv. Transaction undertaken pursuant to the exercise of stock options in respect of which the exercise price was pre-determined in compliance with applicable regulations.
 - v. Trades executed as per the Trading Plan set up in accordance with the Code.
 - vi. Pledge of shares for a bona fide purpose such as raising of funds, subject to pre -clearance by the Compliance Officer.

 - viii. Transmission of Securities.

9. Pre-Clearance of Trades

All Designated Persons, who intend to trade in the securities of the Company when the trading window is open, should pre-clear the trade from the Compliance Officer. However, no designated person shall be entitled to apply for pre-clearance of any proposed trade if such designated person is in possession of unpublished price sensitive information even if the trading window is not closed.

It will be the responsibility of the designated person to ensure that while in possession of unpublished price sensitive information, neither they nor their immediate relatives would undertake any trade in the securities of the Company. Further, it will be the responsibility of the designated person to get pre-clearance of trades from the Compliance Officer of the Company for any trades that any of their immediate relatives intend to undertake in the securities of the Company.

Pre-clearance of trades of spouse is required; even if such spouse of the Designated Person is financially independent and does not consult such person in taking decisions relating to trading in securities.

When a person who has traded in securities has been in possession of unpublished price sensitive information, his/her trades would be presumed to have been motivated by the knowledge and awareness of such information in his/her possession and pre-clearance of trade will not absolve them from their obligations / liabilities under PIT Regulations.

The pre-clearance procedure shall be as prescribed hereunder:

- a. An application shall be made in the prescribed Form (Annexure I) to the Compliance Officer indicating the estimated number & amount of securities of the Company that the Designated Person intends to trade, the details as to the depository with which he/she has a security account, the details as to the securities in such depository mode and such other details as may be required by any rule made by the Company in this behalf.
- b. An undertaking (Annexure II) shall be executed in favour of the Company by such Designated Person incorporating, inter alia, the following clauses, as may be applicable:
 - That the Designated Person does not have any access or has not received unpublished price sensitive information up to the time of signing the undertaking.
 - That in case the Designated Person has access to or receives unpublished price sensitive information after the signing of the undertaking but before the execution of the transaction he/she shall inform the Compliance Officer of the change in his position and that he/she would completely refrain from dealing in the securities of the Company till the time such information becomes public.
 - That he/she has not contravened the code of conduct for prevention of insider trading as notified by the Company from time to time.
 - That he/she has made a full and true disclosure in the matter.
- c. Post receipt of duly executed application form and undertaking, the Compliance Officer, may subject to his/her satisfaction grant the pre-clearance approval (Annexure III) within 2 trading days.
- d. All Designated Persons shall execute their order in respect of securities of the Company within the time period as mentioned in pre-clearance.
- e. The Designated Persons shall file within 2 (two) trading days of the execution of the deal, the details of such deal with the Compliance Officer (Annexure IV). In case the transaction is not undertaken, a report to that effect shall be filed in the same form.

- f. If the order is not executed within the time mentioned in pre-clearance order, the designated person must pre-clear the transaction again.
- g. Pre-clearance would not be required for trade executed as per approved trading plan.
- h. All Designated Persons who buy or sell any number of shares of the Company shall not enter into an opposite transaction i.e. sell or buy any number of shares during the next six months following the prior transaction. The calculation shall be made on LIFO basis.
- i. The aforesaid restriction (contra trade) shall not apply in respect of Buy back offers, open offers, rights issues, FPOs, bonus, split, consolidation and other related corporate actions.
- j. The Compliance Officer is empowered to grant relaxation from strict application of such restriction on contra trade for reasons to be recorded in writing provided that such relaxation does not violate the Code and PIT Regulations. The Designated Persons seeking waiver of the contra period must make an application citing the reasons thereof, to the Compliance Officer providing such information as may be required by the Compliance Officer to consider the relaxation.
- k. In case of any contra trade be executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the SEBI for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by SEBI under the Act.

The following Principles of Fair Disclosure for the purposes of “Code of Practices and Procedures for Fair Disclosure of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information” shall be strictly followed by the Company with immediate effect:-

- a. The Company shall promptly disclose to the public "unpublished price sensitive information" (UPSI) that would impact price discovery, no sooner than such credible & concrete information comes into being.
- b. The Company shall ensure that information shared with analysts and research personnel is not UPSI.
- c. The Company shall uniformly & universally disseminate information (UPSI) and avoid selective disclosure.
- d. The Company shall promptly disseminate UPSI that gets disclosed selectively, inadvertently or otherwise, to make such information generally available to all/public.
- e. The Company shall render appropriate and fair response to queries on news reports and requests for verification of market rumours by regulatory authorities, if any.

- f. The Company shall develop best practices to make transcripts or records of proceedings of meetings with analysts and other investor relations conferences on its official website, in order to ensure official confirmation and documentation of disclosures made.
- g. The Company shall handle all UPSI on a need-to-know basis.

14. Penalty for Contravention

- a. Every Designated Person shall be individually responsible for complying with the provisions of the Code (including to the extent the provisions hereof are applicable to his/her immediate relatives/ material financial relations).
- b. Any Designated Person who trades in securities or communicates any information for trading in securities, in contravention of this Code may be penalized and appropriate action may be taken by the Company.
- c. Designated Persons who violate the Code shall also be subject to disciplinary action by the Company, which may include wage freeze, suspension, recovery, claw-back, ineligibility for future participation in employee stock option plans etc.
- d. The stock exchanges or any other appropriate regulatory authority shall also be informed of the violation of this Code / Regulations in such form and such manner as may be specified by SEBI from time to time, so that appropriate action may be taken. The action by the Company shall not preclude SEBI from taking any action in case of violation of PIT Regulations.
- e. Any amount collected as penalty under this Code shall be credited to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by the SEBI.

15. Documentations

- a. The disclosures to be made by any person under this Code shall include those relating to trading by such person's immediate relatives and by any other person for whom such person takes trading decisions.
- b. The disclosures of trading in securities shall also include trading in derivatives of securities and the traded value of the derivatives shall be taken into account for purposes of this Code.

The disclosures made under this Chapter shall be maintained by the company, for a minimum period of Eight (8) Years, in such form as may be specified.

16. Amendment to the Code

The Board of Directors of the Company reserves the right to add, amend, modify this Code as and when it deems appropriate.

17. Disclaimer and Savings Clause

If any rules under the Code are in conflict with or inconsistent with the PIT Regulations as amended from time to time, then the PIT Regulations as modified/ amended from time to time, shall prevail and shall deemed to have been included in this Code.

This policy is only internal code of conduct and one of the measures to avoid insider trading. Every insider is required to familiarize himself with the PIT Regulations as it will be the responsibility of each insider to ensure compliance of this Code, PIT Regulations and other related statutes fully.
